

AN EVENT LIKE NO OTHER IN A SETTING LIKE NO OTHER

Falmouth is honoured to be hosting this unique national tribute to the UK's armed forces. It will sit alongside other major events in Falmouth this summer including the International Sea Shanty Festival in June and the Tall Ships race in August.

Up to 100,000 extra visitors are expected

Military pageantry and displays on land, sea and in the air

Live music, fireworks, sports and showmanship

Estimated economic impact to Cornwall between £5.5m and £7m

Cornwall and Falmouth in the national spotlight

To allow residents, visitors and businesses to get the most out of this great event the organisers, in consultation with Devon and Cornwall Police and Cornwall Council Highways, have created a travel plan that everyone should follow:

CAR PARKS

If you are not a Falmouth resident or trader please do not try to drive into town on 24 June.

All town centre car parks will be closed and temporary road closures in place.

RAIL TRANSPORT

Falmouth Town station will be closed on Saturday 24 June, for passenger safety reasons, but Penryn, Penmere and Falmouth Docks stations will be open as usual.

Trains run every half hour to and from Truro.

For train times and train information please visit www.gwr.com

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Please use public transport, or the one day Park & Ride service on 24 June based at Falmouth University's Tremough campus. Follow signs as you approach Penryn.

A family of two adults and any number of children can travel on any combination of buses across Cornwall for a whole day.

Please note: Does not include Park and Ride

ROAD CLOSURES AND 'NO-STOPPING' ZONES

- Temporary road closures and 'no-stopping' zones will be in place in Falmouth, but will be re-opened to traffic as soon as it is safe to do so.
- Interruptions to deliveries, hotel arrivals, utility and service vehicles will be kept to a minimum.
- Please follow signs, diversions and police instructions, and only make essential trips into Falmouth on Saturday 24 June.

LOOK INSIDE for maps showing car park closures, traffic restrictions and times they will apply.
