Welcome back...

After two years of the Festival being cancelled due to Covid 19, and a hesitant start in 2022, the Roseland Festival Committee is delighted to announce its return for 2023. We are very excited by this year's Programme which as you can see covers a diverse range of artists, events and acts. We are extremely grateful to all our performers, some of whom regularly give their time and expertise to the festival. Without them, these Roseland events just could not happen.

We appreciate that this year may continue to bring additional challenges due to Covid 19. We will be mindful of adopting appropriate precautions to facilitate the safety of both our audiences and performers.

Our thanks go to all our supporters, sponsors, advertisers and the local establishments that provide venues and funding. A few years ago, we introduced a Stewarding Programme to help with the smooth organisation of individual events. The Committee was very grateful for the extra help and hope to encourage more Festival Friends to act as stewards this year. Don't forget as a steward attendance at the event is free.

Details of the stewarding programme and how to become a Friend of the Festival are at the back of the programme. Please note we have made some small changes to the Friends scheme.

Feedback from our audiences is also very important, particularly in shaping the festival going forward. We would like to hear your feedback and suggestions for new events you would like to see in the future. Your comments can be emailed to info@roselandfestival.co.uk

It's the aim of the Festival to support local arts projects for young people. Since the last festival in 2022, we have managed to provide annual grants to local primary schools and the Roseland Academy to encourage the arts. As well as schools, we also offer individual grants to support young people. Further details of our grants are made available at our AGM and on our website (www.roselandfestival.co.uk/grants).

Charities and organisations supported by the Roseland Festival

The proceeds from last year's festival enabled the Committee to support arts and cultural events on the Roseland for young people by providing grants to the Roseland Academy at Tregony, together with Primary Schools throughout the Roseland, to the Radford Trust and its support of promising young musicians, and also to the Roseland Music Society.

Graham Turpin - Chairman

In particular, our thanks go to Keith Fisher, Keith Warren, Steve Chapman and Richard Hall for supporting the Festival in so many different ways.

Donations from Private Sponsors

The Roseland Festival Committee would like to thank all the Friends below for their generous sponsorship donations. These donors gave us more than £25.00. There are those who kindly gave smaller donations, for which we are also very grateful.

THE ROSELAND CENTRE

A community-led residential centre enabling a range of outdoor educational and cultural experiences for young people, while promoting health, well-being and sustainability for all.

We want to continue in this tradition offering children and adults residential accommodation with access to classes, wellbeing sessions, mentoring and outdoor training with a particular emphasis on water-based activities with local activity providers. The creek in St. Just-in-Roseland is ideally suited to sailing and canoeing sessions, whilst nearby, Summers beach, in St. Mawes, is one of the best and safest places in the UK to learn how to paddleboard. There are also opportunities for land-based activities including hiking and orienteering. We are currently fundraising to support the refurbishment of The Roseland Centre so we can reopen Summer 2023.

TRC would like to thank the King Harry Ferry for supporting our charity by donating all foot passenger fares to support The Roseland Centre

You can also donate through the Crowdfunder website (Scan QR Code):

FEAST is a programme to make great art happen across Cornwall. FEAST harnesses the talents and energy of Cornwall's artists and communities, generating new opportunities for everyone to enjoy the arts. The focus is on bringing people together to share experiences as audiences or participants, and on animating local celebrations and cultural life.

Stewarding

Friends – those joining now or those already 2023 Friends - may also volunteer to act as stewards at events. Being a steward entitles you to attend the event for free.

If you would like to be considered as a Steward, please email our Secretary at: secretary@roselandfestival.co.uk and list two events you would like to volunteer to steward at. Please note that not all events require stewards.

Steward's places are allocated on a first come, first served basis and so we cannot guarantee that you will be able to get free entry to the event of your choice. We will try to notify you of the outcome of your application ASAP, just in case you need to book a ticket.

The provisional dates for the 2024 Festival are

Saturday April 20th until Saturday 4th May and the Committee is already planning the programme.

If you have any suggestions about future events, please email to info@roselandfestival.co.uk.
